This article was in the Hamilton County History Book published in 1985 and is in the Hamilton County, Kendall Young Library, Webster City, Iowa.

It was written by Genevieve (Simpson) Shelton who is the daughter of John E. and Louisa Simpson, and Richard Edward Simpson who is the son of Murray Edward Simpson, who is the son of John E. and Louisa (Murray) Simpson. Information was taken from their family bible.

SIMPSON FAMILY

Early Hamilton County pioneer, John Edward Simpson, seventh child of Adam and Harriett (Farrell) Simpson, was born in Gualph, Canada, March 10, 1869. He was one of fourteen children, many of whom lived in the Duncombe, Iowa area during their youth. His parents came to Canada from Coolaney, Ireland, later moving to the United States about 1870, and settled on a farm a mile and a half north of Highview.

John was united in marriage to Louisa Abigal Murray, March 1, 1893, at Webster City, Iowa. After marriage, and for a couple of years they lived on a farm two and one half miles south of Highview. Then they moved to a farm two miles south of Highview, and a half mile east, where they lived until 1912. While living there they had two sons, Ralph Henry, and Murray Edward. In 1912, they moved one half mile south where their daughter, Genevieve Mae (Mrs. Rue Shelton) was born. The family lived in this location until the death of John in 1926. Louisa then moved to a home in Webster City at 608 Bank Street. Son Murray moved to the home place. Son Ralph married Charity Hayes on October 13, 1923, and lived on the John Murray farm southeast of Highview. Both sons lived at these farms until their deaths, Murray in 1962 and Ralph in 1968. Ralph had four children: Ralph Warren, Dolores Jean (Mrs. Richard Haas), John Edward, and Everett Luverne. Murray married Leno Tweedie on September 10, 1919. Two Sons were born: Richard Edward and Harold Dean.

Genevieve married Rue Shelton on August 15, 1930. Seven children were born: Robert Cecil, Gerald Rue, Ronald Edward, Lynn J., Dale Eugene, Mary Avis (Mrs Jim Chalfant) and Paul E.

The John Simpson family belonged to the Methodist Church in Highview, and later the church in Webster City, Iowa. Louisa lived in Webster City until her death in 1957.
